Each year, the British Columbia Historical Federation recognizes outstanding contributions by individuals and groups to the study and promotion of British Columbia History.

Eligibility - Normally, Certificates of Appreciation will be given to long serving members who are retiring from BCHF Council and to members or friends of the Federation who have given exceptional service to the organization either for a specific project or for long service. Up to three Certificates of Appreciation may be awarded in any one year.

Certificates of Merit may be given to groups or individuals who have made a significant contribution to the study or promotion of British Columbia history. The award may be for an individual project or activity over time. Up to two Certificates of Merit may be awarded in any one year.

Certificates of Recognition may be given to individual members or groups of members of BCHF Member Societies who have given exceptional service to their Organization or Community. Awarding of up to three of these certificates is at the discretion of the Recognitions Committee.

Nominations - Any member of the Federation may nominate candidates for Certificates of Appreciation, Merit and Recognition. Nominations, supported by a letter explaining why the nominee is deserving of a Certificate, should be submitted to the Chair of the Awards Committee by the 1st of March of each year. Certificates are presented at the Annual Conference Awards Banquet.
